Dear friend in film

Last night, the SAFTAs endeavoured to host the 14th Annual Awards Ceremony on social media in response to the uncertainty around the duration of the current nationwide lockdown.

In trying to use technology to celebrate our industry, we faced unforeseen technical difficulties that severely hampered the streaming of the show. Despite our best efforts, we were unable able to deliver a show to the standards we had hoped for and for that we sincerely apologise.

We would like to send a final word of apology to our nominees, winners, stakeholders, our friends in media as well as the general public that, despite the delay stayed up with us last night to celebrate South Africa's film and television talent. We thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Makhosazana Khanyile
